ISRAEL and PALESTINE:

Into the Heart of the Conflict

A Film Series & Speakers
by South Bay Mobilization

"Gaza Strip"

Tuesday, July 29th at 7:00 pm

480 North First Street, San Jose Tel: 998-8504

Directed by James Longley, 2002, 74 mins
Arabic & French with English Subtitles

Filmed during the first 4 months of 2001, "Gaza Strip" pushes the viewer headlong into the tumult of the Israeli-occupied Gaza, examining the lives and views of ordinary Palestinians. Gaza Strip is essentially an open-air prison for Palestinian refugees, guarded on all sides by the Israeli military. Barely 28 miles long and 4 miles wide, it contains more than 1,200,000 Palestinians -- over one third of them living in squalid refugee camps built in 1948 to hold the people forced out of their homes by the creation of modern-day Israel. The documentary often sees the world through the eyes of young people.

The central character is Mohammed Hejazi, a 13-year-old paperboy in Gaza City, one of the young "stone-throwers" who risk their lives throwing rocks at Israeli tanks across the barbed wire fences.

"TRAGEDY in the HOLY LAND: The Second Uprising"

Tuesday, August 12th, 7:00 pm
480 North First Street, San Jose Tel: 998-8504

A film by Dennis Mueller, 2001, 71 minutes.

Few films about the Middle East view history through the lens of the Palestinians, even though they are the people whose history and daily reality lie at the heart of events in the region. "Tragedy In the Holy Land: The Second Uprising" (2001) fills a void in conventional accounts of the Israeli/Palestinian struggle. It gives the viewer access to the choices and background of one of the most misunderstood and misinterpreted conflicts of the last century.

This provocative documentary addresses the core issues of land and identity. It probes the evolution of the seemingly incurable conflict in Palestine from a historical perspective that is typically unknown to American audiences.

Using rarely seen archival footage and interviews with various experts and scholars, "Tragedy In the Holy Land" offers vital information about the roots of the current conflict and the ongoing struggle for survival and dignity. 71 minutes.

The conflict in the Middle East is one of the most misunderstood battles in modern day history. "Tragedy in the Holy Land: The Second Uprising" covers the origins of the dispute between the people of this region and offers a rare look at the confrontation from a Palestinian point of view, with profound remarks and insight from Palestinians, Jews and other noted scholars.
