

On the 62nd Anniversary of Hiroshima and Nagasaki ...

Arsenal of Hypocrisy

The First Casualty of War is the Truth

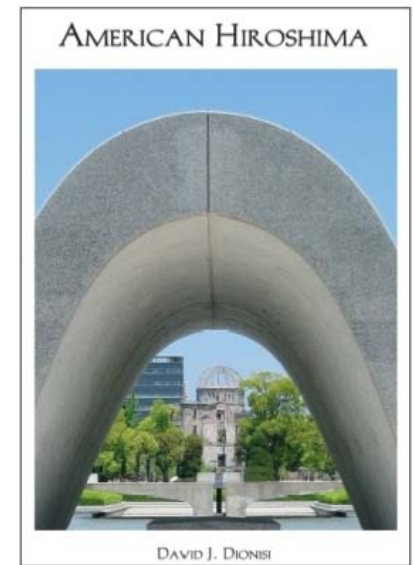

Arsenal of Hypocrisy is a documentary film by Randy Atkins. The glory days of NASA are over! To understand how and why the Space Program will be used to fight all future wars on Earth from space, it is important to understand how the public has been misled about the origins and true purpose of the Space Program.

Dave Dionisi is the author of American Hiroshima, a book about how to prevent the next 9/11 attack in the United States. Having served as an Army intelligence officer and as a Fortune 500 executive, Dave tells the inside story of the military-industrial complex. He has also worked extensively as a volunteer in Asia, Central America, Europe, and Africa. He has convinced many conservatives to renounce support for Bush and the unjust war in Iraq.
